TAKES OMNIUM HANDICAP FROM HURSTBOURNE.

Oiseau Wins the Golden Rod Stakes in a Hard Drive-Brush Up, Ormonde's Right, Eagle and Stolen Moments Also Triumph at the Sheepshead Bay Track.

Colonial Girl, the five-year-old Meddler mare who defeated Hermis in the $50,000 World's Fair Handieap at St. Louis last June, won the Omnium Handicap, one mile and a furlong, at the Bay yesterday in splendid style. She was well backed across the board, her price dropping to 5 to 1, and after making nearly all the running with a slight advantage W. B. Leeds's Hurstbourne, 15 to 1, she beat the latter by three parts of a length in 1:53 3-5. R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s Dolly Spanker, vo 2, finished third, a length and a half back, and a length before McChesney. Proper and Dainty were coupled favorites backed down from 5 to 2 to 9 to 5. They were pocketed at all periods and never got out. McChesney, with top weight, was played down to tens, but he was left at the post, only to run his best race of the season, beating Dainty a head. H. B. Duryea's Gunfire, in favor at 16 to 5, after making an unsuccessful attempt to go to the front in the middle of the backstretch stopped to nothing and finished last.

The wise men plunged on the Western colt Oiseau to win the Golden Rod Stakes, for two-year-olds, at six and a half furlongs turf, the closing price being 13 to 20, while John E. Madden's Waterside carried considerable support at 17 to 10. Oiseau, after running Waterside into the ground in the rush to the head of the stretch, made the gamest kind of finish under a drive and beat Pasadena, the only other starter, by three parts of a length in the fast time of 1:19 4-5, a new record for the race at the istance. Waterside was eight lengths be-

Sydney Paget's Ormonde's Right, 11 to 5, mecond choice, was successful in the handi-dap for all ages at a mile. Ancestor set the pace for him, and the Paget colt shot to the front in the stretch, beating the heavily backed favorite, Wild Thyme, by two lengths. The latter had half a length over Ancestor. The time was 1:40.

In the first event, for two-year-old fillies, at five and a half furlongs. Futurity course, there was a close finish, Brush Up, 3 to 1, winning by a head from the 13 to 5 favorite Fleur farie, who had a similar advantage over Miss Modesty, backed down from 60 to 1 to sixes. Delusion, another hot tip, was less than half a length back. Brush Up made all the pace and was timed in 1:05 3-5.

Eagle, 4 to 1, took the fifth event, for platers at a mile and a quarter, in 2:07. He was galloping at the end and beat The Southerner, a to 1 favorite, by three lengths. Aurubacked down to 4 to 1, was third, beating Cloverdale a head.

Mrs. L. Curtis's Stolen Moments, lowered to 4 to 1, captured the last race, at a mile and a sixteenth on the turf, by a length. She was a sixteenth on the turr, by a length. She was ridden out by Travers, as Prince Ching, 7 to 1, closed strongly. Sidney C. Love, a hot favorite, was third, three lengths away, after making the running to the head of the stretch. The time was 1:47 1-5. Five first choices were defeated. The weather was blustering and the attendance was not more PIEST RACE.

This skirmish match has for five successive years gone to the Second District of Columbia, but the Washingtonians went to pieces to-day, partly because the team has had no practice this year, because their range at Ordway was closed last spring, and also because two of its oldest men are off the team. The match was the most spectacular of the tournament. TO-DAY'S CARD FOR SHEEPSHEAD. Annual Champion Stakes and Great Eastern Handicap Are Features. The Coney Island Jockey Club has pared a splendid card for the Bay this aftermoon. The Annual Champion Stakes, at two miles and a quarter is the feature, for which Stalwart will probably be made the choice over Broomstick, Graziallo and Africander. The Great Eastern Handicap for two-year-olds at six furlongs. Futurity Course, has drawn a large field with Tradition, Oiseau, Wild Mint and Burnt Hills figuring promi nently. The Hitchcock entry, Forhunter and Good and Plenty, will be backed to win the Westbury Steeplechase, with Lavator and Caller high in favor, too. In the second race for all ages at six furlongs, main track, Reliable and Lady Amelia have big imposts. Shotgun, Jocund, Flying Ship and the two-year-olds Councilman and Handzarra look the best at the weights. There are some fair youngsters in the fifth race for two-year-olds, including Vidalia, Belle Dixon, Sir Brillar, Teacress, Niblick, Workman and Escutcheon. Sheriff Bell, Eagle and Prince Chier will probably find favor in the last nently. The Hitchcock entry, Foxhunte

At even money, the layers accepted all sorts of wagers, some as large as $5,000. Both Wild Thyme and Ormonde's Right receded a trifle, however, as there was a liberal play on Sir Lynnewood and Ancestor. Some of the sharps who played Ancestor were inclined to criticise Hildebrand for making too much use of the Plaudit filly; but she ran her race Joe Yeager and his partner, Ed Stutte, lost between them $20,000 on Sidney C. The colt's leg was swollen considerably yesterday, but an effort will be made to get him fit to start in the Annual Champion Stakes to-day. NEW YORKS MEET QUAKERS IN ANOTHER DOUBLE HEADER.

McGinnity Hit Hard, but Effective With Men on Bases—No Scoring in Second Contest, Which Darkness Cuts Short -Pittsburgs Win From the Chicagos. Of all the second rate second division teams in the National League, the Philadelphias give the New Yorks the hardest battles. Yesterday the New Yorks won one game from the Quakers and tied them in the second. Pittsburg beat Chicago and rain prevented the Boston-Brooklyn game. The results: New York, 6: Philadelphia, 4-First Game

Steam heat in the clubhouse and baseball in the field were contrasts at the Polo Grounds yesterday. The day was raw and gloomy, and the baseball of the harum-scarum order, but with a good deal of life in the first game, considering the weather. The New Yorks won the first game. Neither side scored in the second, which was called at the end of the fifth inning on account of darkness and the absence of stoves. McGinnity, in the first game, was hit hard, and his control was not up to his mark; but he improved as the game went on, and did his best work with men on bases by bringing his generalship into play. Kid Gleason, who made five hits during the day, made a two bagger in the first inning after Thomas had drawn four balls. Lush brought both men in with a single. Dahlen's two bagger sent in Bresnahan and Browne in the first. Bresnahan's run was a gift. He went to first base on balls and would have been out at third when stealing had not Donohue muffed Roth's throw. Browne reached first on a single.

The Philadelphias made two runs in the econd in much the same way as they in the first, from a base on balls, double and single—Donohue, Roth and Fraser partici-pating—and then a double play. In the third they took to bunting and had three on bases with nobody out. Then McGinnity showed his mettle by striking out the next two men, and the next one forced a base runner. Moran was off on balls and strikes on Fraser and Thomas in the third inning and his poor decisions brought a growl from the Philadelphia bench. At this Moran gave an awe inspiring display of authority. He chased five Philadelphia substitutes from the bench in a bunch. Kid Gleason applauded and Donohue timidly asked the umpire: "Please let somebody stay on the bench to watch my coat?"

With two out in the third, Dunn batted in Dahlen after the latter had promenaded. Breenahan made the best play of the day in the fifth. He took Donohue's line fly and doubled Titus at the plate by a superb throw. A base on balls to Bowerman, McGinnity's bunt, Donohue's fumble of Breenahan's grounder, Browne's single and an outfield fly won the game for New York in the sixth linning. The score:

PHILADELPPIA, Sept. 9.—Philadelphia turned the tables on New York this afternoon winning both games by precisely the same figures that the visitors won by yesterday, 3 to 2 and 5 to 1. The first game was won in the eighth mning on a single by Pickering, a wiid pitch which permitted him to go to third and a single by Lave Cross. In trying to stretch a triple into a home run in the third inning, Harry Davis was severely in-jured, his hand sliding into the plate, and the will be out of the game for a week or more Waddell had the better of Griffith in the sec ond game, New York's hits being scattered through as many innings, and but for a fum-ble by Monte Cross there would have been snut out.
